

Right Guard Security is unique due to our flexibility to deliver security solutions to today's constant needs.

Hospitality, Exhibitions, Prestigious Engagements, and Corporate Assignments

We continuously strive to maintain our high standards. We believe our expertise and diversity provides our clients with confidence and experience during planning stages and the delivery of the security assignment.

We can also be deployed at short notice to react to calls for help to the unexpected surprises!

We have recently witnessed the huge disruption caused by rioting, and protestors in central London. Our specially trained security teams can offer support to the traditional security officer.

Our trained response teams are equipped with protective fire retardant clothing, protective helmets, stab resistant vest, hand cuffs, restraint straps, red web spray, long and short shields.

Right Guard Security's Guarding Services was formed in 1990 in response to meeting demands from the construction, commercial, retail, industrial, and leisure sectors.

Our ambitious company has grown considerably due to our high standards of professionalism and expertise, and is now recognised throughout southern England for its Manned Guarding Services.

Our uniformed officers, commissionaires and retail services offer peace of mind and support to hundreds of blue chip clients throughout the country.

Right Guard Security insists on the highest quality personnel. Our sister company Mission Training Ltd provides various training programmes to constantly improve the standards required within the demands of today's security industry.

Our retail services include: store detection and loss prevention to prestigious clients.

Our primary role is health and safety, and customer care to both client and security personnel. The package includes risk assessments and our professional, valued advice on access control, emergency plans, and security deployment.

Our Event and Security Management Division provides security services and professional personnel to a comprehensive variety of shows, events, and crowd gatherings, including: concerts, music festivals, air shows, motor shows, exhibitions, sporting events, county shows, and many more.

Right Guard is proud to offer a Close Protection Service

Alarm Response and Key Holding Services

Our patrol and response is 24-7 / 365

Our 24-7 Alarm Response and Key Holding Services provides peace of mind for Managing Directors, Chief Executives, and many local authorities, ensuring that their businesses are protected.

This service is also in huge demand from private residents, estate agents, and landlords, ensuring that their properties are kept safe.

We also offer our clients a service to manage out of hours emergency repair work, ensuring the site is protected from further damage to the property and contents.
